

Major Doug Wilhelm

Major Doug Wilhelm is a native of Kannapolis, North Carolina and graduated from A.L. Brown High School in 1980. He holds an associate's degree in criminal justice from Rowan Cabarrus Community College, and graduated summa cum laud from Western Carolina University with a bachelor of science in criminal justice. He earned an Advanced Law Enforcement Certificate from the N.C. Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission, and a Criminal Investigation Certificate from the N.C. Justice Academy. He is also a certified instructor with the Commission.

Wilhelm started his career in law enforcement in 1989 as a Cabarrus County Deputy Sheriff and joined the Concord Police Department as a Patrol Officer in July of 1995. After working in the Patrol Division, Wilhelm served as a Criminal Investigations Detective and DARE/School Resource Officer before his promotion to Sergeant of Special Investigations in 2003. From 2007-2014, Wilhelm served as Captain of the Criminal Investigations Unit.

Major Wilhelm lives in Stanly County with his wife. He has been happily married for 30 years, and has three children and four grandchildren.