

Captain Todd McGhee

Captain McGhee was raised in Concord, North Carolina. Captain McGhee began his career with the City of Concord in 1997. Formerly working in the Communications Department (1997-2000) and the Fire Department (2000-2001), Captain McGhee now serves Baker District with 15-years of law enforcement service to the Police Department. As an Officer, Captain McGhee worked in the Patrol Division, Criminal Investigation Division (Vice/Narcotics and Special Victims Unit), and the Special Investigations Unit. Captain McGhee achieved the rank of Sergeant in 2008 and supervised in both the Patrol Division and Support Services Division. Captain McGhee was promoted to the rank of Captain in April 2016. Captain McGhee attends Montgomery Community College and hold his Advanced Law Enforcement certificate from the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission.

Captain McGhee lives in Cabarrus County. In his spare time, Captain McGhee enjoys competitive fishing and playing golf.

"We are committed to making the City of Concord a great place to live, work, and play. We are eager to build long-lasting community relationships that exemplify the cooperation between law enforcement and the public. We are fully vested in building public trust. We will be transparent, responsive, and accountable to the citizens and visitors of the City of Concord."

Homeowners Association, Brown Mill Neighborhood Association, Cinnamon Hill Homeowners Association, City of Concord Housing, Logan Neighborhood Association, Ramsgate Homeowners Association, Roberta Woods Homeowners Association, Silverhill Community Association, Underwood Park Neighborhood Association)