NATA WELCOMES OVER 500 PHILLIPS 66 AVIATION BRANDED DEALERS AS NEW MEMBERS

Alexandria, VA, June 22, 2010 — The National Air Transportation Association (NATA) is pleased to announce that Phillips 66 Aviation has provided introductory membership in NATA to its branded dealers that are currently not NATA members. This effort allows these dealers the opportunity to experience all the benefits of NATA membership, while supporting the national association.

“We believe it is important to have a strong, national organization representing the interests of the general aviation industry and our branded dealers,” said Rod Palmer, manager of general aviation for Phillips 66 Aviation. “Supporting NATA is one way of ensuring a strong legacy.”

The Phillips 66 Aviation dealers will be able to take advantage of NATA’s advocacy efforts, be informed of developments in the industry via NATA’s member publications, and be able to participate in NATA’s money-saving benefit programs such as Workers’ Compensation insurance.

“NATA applauds Phillips 66 Aviation for recognizing the importance of a strong national association, and we look forward to working with them and their constituents for years to come,” said NATA President James K. Coyne.
