

Captain Alan Lee

Captain Alan Lee is a native of Concord, NC. He is a graduate of Northwest Cabarrus High school and Pfeiffer University where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice. Captain Lee began his career in law enforcement in 1996 with Concord Police Department. After being hired, he attended Basic Law Enforcement Training at Rowan Cabarrus community college. Upon completion of his training he was assigned to the patrol division.

Captain Lee has served the department in a variety of positions to include patrolman, investigations, traffic safety, and as the alcohol enforcement officer. Captain Lee was promoted to the rank of Sergeant in October of 2006 where he served in the Professional Standards Division as the recruiting and training supervisor. In 2010, Lee transferred back to the patrol division and served in David district as a patrol Sergeant until he was promoted the rank of Captain. Lee served as the commander over Adam district for approximately 2 years.

In May 2016, Lee was transferred to his current assignment over the support services unit. Lee currently oversees the recruiting, hiring, and records management services for the department.

Captain Lee received his Advanced Law Enforcement certification and his general instructor certification from the North Carolina Law Enforcement Training and Standards Commission in 2003. Lee then received his Specialized Driver Instructor certification from the commission as well. Captain Lee is passionate about Driver training and currently serves as the department's lead driving instructor. "We have an obligation to the community to set a high standard for safe vehicle operation."

Captain Lee has attended more than 500 hours of specialized training in vehicle crash and pedestrian reconstruction. In 2004 he became the fourth member of the department to attend and receive the Traffic Enforcement and Investigators Certificate from the North Carolina Justice Academy.

Captain Lee is an avid NASCAR fan and some of his hobbies include fishing, hunting, camping, and many other outdoor recreational activities.

Captain Lee believes in building relationships with the community by being honest and treating people fairly and with respect.
